All overcoats this year are full.
Armheim Overcoats have always been full of value. Oh! it takes art, skill and "know how" to drape a garment all of whose fit is around the neck and shoulders. Shops which know as much about it ask $50 for coats that we will build at $30. If you are not completely fitted you can't have the garment.

APPEAL FOR VASSAR COLLEGE.

Attempt to Raise Fund to Make Mr. Rockefeller's Conditional Gift Available.

An appeal has been issued by the friends of Vassar College as a general subscription to increase the endowment of the college.
The appeal says in part:

As an encouragement to immediate effort Mr. John D. Rockefeller has promised to contribute dollar for dollar up to $200,000 for the college may raise before June, 1904.
His contribution is restricted to general educational endowment. It is not to be used for the purchase of land, nor for the purchase of a woman's college are not likely to number many who control large funds, and they are not in business and increasing their capital.
The college must appeal to those who are able to give largely.

We ask for the endowment of professorships. By a gift of $75,000 an individual may thus perpetuate his or her name in a truly and as useful as in a building, for the catalogue always announces the chair by the name of the donor.

The college has not sufficient means to meet the increasing demands upon it. It has erected many buildings in ten years and even now a large chapel and great library are being erected. It needs more residence halls to care for the large numbers that are obliged to live off the campus. A fine new museum, a laboratory of chemistry, a building for art, a building for music, but the present effort to secure a fund that shall be kept as a perpetual endowment for educational work.

Figures are presented to show that the net income provided for educational purposes including tuition charges, falls $34,937 short of the actual expenses of the college.

The following names are signed to the appeal:

Edward Lathrop, J. M. Bruce, H. Deane, Joachim Eldendorff, Henry M. Sanders, Duncan D. Parry, Charles M. Pratt, S. B. Moore, W. P. Rindge,

MADE HASH IN COURT.

Cook's Demonstration of Her Ability Wins
Her Suit for $25.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., Nov. 14.—Cora Johnson, a cook formerly in the employ of Mrs.
Margaret Cox, was discharged a few days ago as incompetent, and when her mistress refused to pay her a month's wages she brought suit to recover the amount in Justice Darlington's court.

Mrs. Cox told the Court that the girl could not make corned beef hash. The girl took exception to the statement and averred that she could lend the world in making that dish.

"Well, Cora," said Justice Darlington,
"I would like to see you make the dish to satisfy the Court."

"All right, Judge," replied the defendant,
"I can prepare it right here in the courtroom."

A constable was sent for the necessary ingredients for the hash. The cook rolled up her sleeves and in the presence of the Court turned out a dish that was pronounced at a King. Cora got a verdict for $25.

riages during the quarter, an increase of
